Revised 01/30/2025

Throughout these Agreements and Disclosures, the references to "We", "Us", "Our" and "Credit Union" mean CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY CREDIT UNION (CCCU). The words "You" and "Your" mean each and all of those who apply for and/or use any of the electronic services described in these Agreements and Disclosures. When you use the electronic services described herein or authorize others to use them, you accept these Agreements and Disclosures. By using the electronic services or allowing other persons to use the electronic services, you agree to the terms and conditions presented here, in addition to other agreements you have entered into with the Credit Union, including but not limited to the Member Account Agreement and Disclosure and the Bill Pay Terms and Conditions Agreement and Addendum governing your Credit Union account(s) and Privacy Policy, collectively referred to as the "Other Agreements". The Other Agreements are incorporated by this reference and made a part of this Agreement and Disclosure. In the event of an inconsistency between this Agreement and Disclosure and the Other Agreements, the terms of this Agreement and Disclosure shall control to the extent of such inconsistency. The Credit Union, in its discretion, may modify this Agreement and Disclosure from time to time without notice or as otherwise provided by law. Continued use of the electronic services constitutes acceptance of any new or amended terms and conditions. Please read, print, and retain this Agreement and Disclosure for your records.

This Agreement and Disclosure is given by us in compliance with the Electronic Funds Transfer Act (15 U.S.C. Section 1693, et seq.) and Regulation E (12 CFR 1005, et seq.) to inform you of certain terms and conditions of the electronic services you have requested.

A. GENERAL DISCLOSURES APPLICABLE TO ALL ELECTRONIC SERVICES.

1. Business Day Disclosure. Our business days are Monday through Friday, except holidays. Our business hours are:

San Dimas Branch - 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Closed Saturday & Sunday.

ATMs, POS terminals, Online and Mobile Banking, are generally open, but not always accessible, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

2. Disclosure of Account Information to Third Parties. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or transfers you make:

- When it is necessary to complete an electronic transaction; or
- To verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant; or
- To comply with a government agency or Court order, or any legal process; or
- If you give us written permission.

As explained in our separate privacy disclosures, which can be found at Privacy & Security - Christian Community Credit Union, Confidential data relating to our internet service, marketing strategies, business operations, other persons or entities, and business systems (collectively, "Confidential Information") may come into your possession in connection with this Agreement and Disclosure and you are prohibited from disclosing and agree to maintain the confidentiality of Confidential Information.

3. In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers. You must telephone us at: 800- 347- CCCU (800-347-2228) or write us at: CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY CREDIT UNION, P.O. Box 9001 San Dimas CA. 91773-9001, as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transaction listed on the statement or receipt. You can click here for more information about our days and hours of operation for contacting us. We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we send you the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. You must:

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or the transaction you are unsure about and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information; and
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we will require that you send your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days.

We will determine whether an error occurred within ten (10) business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to forty-five (45) days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will provisionally credit your account within ten (10) business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. However, if the notice of error involves a transfer to or from an account within thirty days after the first deposit to the account was made, we may have up to twenty (20) days to determine if an error occurred and we will provisionally credit such an account within twenty (20) days if more time is needed to complete our investigation.

If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we may not provisionally credit your account.

If a notice of error involves an electronic fund transfer that occurred within thirty (30) days after the first deposit to the account was made, the error involves a new account. For errors involving new accounts, point of sale debit card transactions, or foreign-initiated transactions, we may take up to ninety (90) days to investigate your complaint.

We will tell you the results within three (3) business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we may debit your account the amount of the provisional credit, if provided. We will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

4. Your Liability for Unauthorized Transfers. Please note that the term unauthorized electronic fund transfer, also referred to herein as an unauthorized transfer, has the same meaning as defined in Regulation E, 12 CFR § 1005.2(m). You are responsible for all transfers you authorize using the services hereunder. Transactions that you or someone acting with you initiates with fraudulent intent are also authorized transactions. You understand and agree that you will be responsible for all transactions that you make and/or initiate, including fraudulent transactions where you initiate the transaction but are the victim of fraud or transactions you initiate in error. When you give someone your password or other means to access the services, you are authorizing that person to use your services, and you are responsible for all transactions that person performs while using your services unless otherwise provided for by applicable law. All transactions that person performs, even those transactions you did not intend or want performed, are authorized transactions, unless otherwise provided for by applicable law.

Notify the Credit Union immediately if you believe your password or other credentials to access the services have been lost or stolen or that an unauthorized transfer has been made from any of your accounts. Telephoning us is the best and fastest way of keeping your possible losses to a minimum. You could lose all the money in your accounts.

If you tell us within two (2) business days after you discover the loss or theft, you may be liable for no more than $50, if someone accesses your account without your permission.

If you do not tell us within two (2) business days after you discover the loss or theft of your password or other credentials to access the services, or that an unauthorized transfer has been made from any of your accounts, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from making a transfer without your authorization if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.

Furthermore, if any account statement shows transfers that you did not make, tell us immediately. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money lost after the sixty (60) days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from making the transfers if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

If you believe your password or other credentials to access the services has been lost or stolen or that someone has transferred or may transfer money from your accounts using the services without your permission, call:

800-347-CCCU (800-347-2228)

Or write to:

CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY CREDIT UNION, PO BOX 9001, San Dimas, CA 91773-9001

5. Our Liability for Failure to Make or Complete Electronic Funds Transactions. If we do not properly complete an electronic funds transaction to your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we may be liable for your losses and damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable, for instance, if:

- Circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood, earthquake, electronic failure or malfunction of central data processing facility, etc.) prevent the transaction, despite reasonable precautions;
- Through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account (or sufficient collected funds) to make a transaction;

- The funds in your account are subject to an uncollected funds hold, legal process or other circumstances restricting such transaction or payment;
- We have received incorrect or incomplete information from you or from third parties (e.g. the U.S. Treasury, an automated clearing house, or a terminal owner);
- The ATM, POS terminal, Online and Mobile Banking or other electronic services system contemplated hereunder was not working properly and you knew about this breakdown when you started the transaction;
- The ATM where you were making the transaction did not have enough cash, or cash in the denominations you requested;
- Your CCCU Debit Card, VISA® Credit Card, or MASTERCARD® Credit Card, has been reported lost or stolen, has expired, is damaged so that the terminal cannot read the encoding strip, is inactive due to non-use, is retained by us at your request, or because your CCCU Debit Card, VISA® Credit Card, MASTERCARD® Credit Card PIN or Online and Mobile Banking Password has been repeatedly entered incorrectly;
- The transaction would exceed your Line of Credit limit or Credit Card limit;
- Our failure to complete the transaction is done to protect the security of your account and/or the electronic terminal system;
- The payee mishandles or delays a payment sent by the Bill Payment Service.
- If you provide an incomplete or incorrect username or password, you answer security questions incorrectly, you do not enter a correct security code supplied by us to authenticate your identity, your username or password has been repeatedly entered incorrectly, or you have not properly followed any applicable computer, internet, or our instructions for making transfers or using our internet service.
- If your account is closed or if it has been frozen.
 - If you, or anyone you allow, commits any fraud or violates any law or regulation or if any transaction is prohibited by law, regulation, court order, or would be considered illegal activity.
 - If you have not provided us with complete and correct payment information, including without limitation, the name, address, account number, and payment amount for the payee on a transfer.
 - If delays in processing and/or payment are caused by third-party software and/or services.
 - There may be other exceptions.

6. Login Security. You understand that you cannot use Online and Mobile Banking without login security information, i.e., an identification number or Password, which we refer to as Password for Online and Mobile Banking. You will select your own password for Online and Mobile Banking. You are responsible for the safekeeping of your Password.

- You agree not to give or make available login security information to any unauthorized individual. All transactions affected using the services contemplated hereunder that would otherwise require your actual signature, or other authorization, will be valid and effective as if signed by you when accomplished by use of your Password or as otherwise authorized under this Agreement and Disclosure. We are entitled to act on all transaction instructions received using your Password. Unless otherwise provided for by applicable law, you are financially responsible for all uses of the services by you and those who are authorized by you to use the services, including without limitation, providing your Password, login information, verification information, and/or account information to others. If you believe your login information has been lost or stolen, someone has attempted to use your online or mobile banking access without your consent, your account(s) or loan accounts have been accessed, or someone has transferred money without your permission, you must notify the Credit Union immediately.

- You further understand that your Password is not transferable.
- For your protection, we recommend that you regularly change your Password used to access the services.
- You understand that if you disclose your account and/or login information to any person, you have given such person access to your account via the services, including the ability to review all your personal and financial information and to engage in account transactions. Such transactions are deemed authorized transactions unless otherwise provided for by applicable law. Unless provided for by applicable law, you assume all risks and losses associated with such disclosure and you agree to be responsible for any transaction and activities performed from your account and for use of any of your personal, account, and/or login information by such person even if such transactions were not intended by you or exceed your intended authority. You are responsible for any transactions made by such authorized person up to the time you specifically revoke such authority by notifying us in writing, provided we have sufficient time to reasonably act on your notice, and immediately changing your PIN and Password or other login information.
- Anyone with access to your email and devices may be able to view transactional and account balance information that we send to you via email, texts, and push notifications. Such information can be delivered whether you are logged into the services and whether your mobile device is locked or in sleep mode. If you do not wish for others to see your information, you should keep the password for your email private, establish a passcode lock on your mobile device, and protect your screen when information is displayed. In addition to protecting your account information, you should also protect your personal information, such as your driver's license, Social Security Number, etc. This information, alone or together with information on your account, may allow unauthorized access to your account. It's your responsibility to protect your personal information with the same level of care that you protect your account information.
- Under no circumstances will the Credit Union contact members requesting a member's online banking credentials. If you receive a solicitation of this nature, you are requested to contact the Credit Union immediately at 800-347-CCCU (800-347-2228).

7. Charges for Electronic Funds Transaction Services. All charges associated with your electronic funds' transactions are disclosed in our Schedule of Fees. A stop payment placed on a pre-authorized electronic payment is subject to a Stop Payment fee for each stop payment order you give. There may also be a charge assessed if you overdraw your Checking Account using an CCCU Debit Card. If you request a copy of the documentation relative to an ATM or POS transaction (except if the documentation is for resolution of a billing error), a fee equal to our reasonable cost of reproduction will be charged. Any fees charged will be deducted from your Checking or Share Account(s).

8. Change in Terms. We may change the terms and charges for the services indicated in this Electronic Services Disclosure and may amend this Agreement and Disclosure from time to time. Such changes render prior versions of this Agreement and Disclosure obsolete. We will provide you with written notice if required by applicable law, rule or regulation. Features and services available may be added at any time. We will update the Agreement and Disclosure to notify you of the existence of new features and services, and, by using the new features and services when they become available, you agree to be bound by the rules contained in these Agreements and Disclosures. Features and services available may be canceled or limited at any time. We will update the Agreement and Disclosure to notify you when features and services have been canceled or limited and will provide you with written notice if required by applicable law, rule or regulation. The Agreement and Disclosure will be available and posted on our website on the effective date, unless an immediate change is necessary to maintain the security of the system or unless a law, rule or regulation requires that it be available at an earlier time. If such a change is made, and it cannot be disclosed without jeopardizing the system's security, the Agreement and Disclosure will be updated within a reasonable time after the change. You will be notified as soon as possible when changes are made which materially affect your rights. Continued use of our services by you after notice of a change in terms constitutes acceptance of the change.

9. Disclosure of Delayed Funds Availability. We may place a hold for uncollected funds on an item you deposit. This could delay your ability to withdraw such funds. For further details, see your disclosure of "Funds Availability Policy" or contact a Credit Union associate.

10. Process for Notifying Member of Exceptions. In the unlikely event we are unable to process your transaction, we will notify you via email, telephone, text, or mailing.

11. Termination of Electronic Funds Transaction Services. You may terminate any of the electronic services provided for in this Agreement and Disclosure. We may terminate your right to make electronic funds transactions at any time. If you ask us to terminate your account or the use of a CCCU Debit Card or any other access device, you will remain liable for subsequent authorized transactions performed on your account. We recommend that you cancel any scheduled payments or transfers prior to notifying us of your termination. Your use of our service will be terminated after we have had a reasonable opportunity to act upon your termination request. Termination by any one account owner will be binding on all account owners and we are not required to notify other account owners of the termination. We may suspend or terminate your participation in or use of our service, or any portion of our service, for any reason or no reason, at any time, with or without notice. We will try to notify you in advance, but we are not obligated to do so. We shall have no obligation to honor any instruction, in whole or in part, that: 1) is or we reasonably believe is used for any illegal or improper purpose or activity; 2) exceeds the available funds in your account; 3) we have reason to believe may not be authorized by you; 4) involves funds subject to a hold, dispute or legal process; 5) would violate any law, rule or regulation applicable to us, our internet service, you or any other party that processes or receives the payment; 6) is not in accordance with any other requirement stated in the Agreement and Disclosure or any Other Agreements with us, or any of our policies, procedures or practices; or 7) for our protection or your protection, we have reasonable cause not to honor. Neither termination, cancellation nor suspension shall affect your liability or obligations under this Agreement and Disclosure.

12. Relationship to Other Disclosures. The information in this disclosure applies only to the electronic service transactions described herein. Provisions in other disclosure documents, as may be revised from time to time, remain effective for all other aspects of the account involved.

Use of a Third-Party Bill Pay Service Provider

Christian Community Credit Union has contracted with a third-party Bill Pay Service provider to provide bill pay service to our members. This third-party Bill Pay Service provider will be processing bill payments and providing information about your account to the Credit Union, related to these member-initiated bill payments. The third-party Bill Pay Service provider uses two types of remittance methods to pay bills for end users. Payments may be remitted electronically or by paper check, depending upon the preferences and capabilities of the merchant (Payee).

CCCU, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to change Bill Pay Service providers.

Enrollment Request for Bill Pay

CCCU reserves the right to refuse enrollment in the bill pay service to any member who does not meet the criteria which has been established by the Credit Union and/or the third-party Bill Pay Service provider.

Transaction Fees for Bill Pay

Bill Pay is free for all Christian Community Credit Union members who have an eligible Checking Account. You understand that fees for all CCCU services can be found on our fee schedule, which can be viewed by clicking here.

Bill Pay

As used in this Agreement, the term "Payee" means the designated merchant, vendor, biller, person, or entity to whom you wish a bill payment to be directed; "User" means the person who subscribes to the bill pay service; "Payment Instructions" means the information you provide to the bill pay service for a payment to be made to your payee (e.g. Payee name, account number, payment amount, payment date, etc.); "Bill Pay Account" means your checking account designated for using bill pay service; "Due Date" means the date your payment is due to the Payee; "Business Day" is every day except Saturdays, Sundays, holidays, and days we are closed; "Approximate Debit Date" means the date that funds must be available in your Bill Pay Account (it is anticipated that this will be 2-5 Business Days before your selected Due Date, depending on the Payee's method of accepting payment); and "Cutoff Time" means 1:00 p.m. Pacific Time on any Business Day, and is the time by which you must transmit payment instructions to have them considered entered on the next Business Day.

NOTE: For a first-time payment to a new (unverified) merchant, the merchant must be set up an additional five (5) to ten (10) business days prior to the due date to guarantee payment by the due date. You understand that any of your merchant set ups or payment instructions must be transmitted to CCCU via Bill Pay by 1:00 p.m. Pacific Time on any business day to have them be considered entered on the next business day.

By providing the Service with the names and account information of those entities and/or persons to whom you wish to direct payment, you authorize the Service to follow the payment instructions that it receives from you or your authorized user through bill pay service. When the Service receives a payment instruction, you authorize it to debit your Bill Pay Account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close to the Business Day designated by you as reasonably possible. (Business Day is every day except Saturdays, Sundays, holidays and days we are closed.)

While it is anticipated that most transactions will be processed according to the "approximate debit date" before your selected Due Date, it is understood that due to circumstances beyond the control of CCCU or the Bill Pay Service provider, particularly delays in handling and posting payments by slow responding companies or financial institutions (Payees), some transactions may take a day or even a few days longer to be credited by your Payee to your account with them.

For this reason, it is necessary that all Due Dates selected by you must be the actual due date, not the late date and/or a date in the grace period. Payment Instructions entered after the Cutoff Time or on a non-Business Day will be considered entered the bill pay service on the next Business Day.

NOTE: If the date a payment is due falls on a non-Business Day, the Due Date selected by you should be the prior Business Day to ensure timely payment.

In addition, you understand that the initial link for each Payee must be established and verified before the first electronic payment can be posted to your account with that Payee. It can take 5-10 days to consolidate a payee into an electronic payee. You understand that CCCU will not send payments to unverified Payees, and that your payment could be late or not paid at all if you do not allow enough time for the initial linking process.

You may cancel or edit any scheduled payment (including recurring payments) if the changes are made before the funds have been debited from your Bill Pay Account. There is no charge for canceling or editing a scheduled payment. Please note: because we will not have a reasonable opportunity to act on any stop payment or cancellation order, it is not possible to stop or cancel a payment once your Bill Pay Account has been debited.

You have signed up for a consumer version of the bill pay service. Bill Pay is designed and intended to be used for personal, family, or household purposes. For a designated checking account (Bill Pay Account) to be used with Bill Pay, you must have established the account primarily for personal, family or household purposes. Bill Pay is not specifically designed for business or commercial purposes. You agree to take full responsibility if any of the designated accounts you use with Bill Pay are business or commercial accounts. You are obligated to reimburse CCCU for any loss we incur because of your use of Bill Pay for business or commercial purposes.

Excluded Payees

Payees that are excluded from payment through Bill Pay are: governmental agencies, including but not limited to federal, state and local taxing authorities including the IRS, collection agencies, DMV, as well as recipients of courtordered payments such as child support and alimony. Payments to any organizations or individuals with addresses outside of the United States are also excluded. If the Service detects that a link to an "excluded payee" has been created, it will delete the link to the member and the payee from the database.

Our Liability for Failure to Make Transfers

The Service will use its best efforts to make all your payments properly. However, the Service shall incur no liability if it is unable to complete any payments initiated by you through the Service because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

- If, through no fault of CCCU, you do not have enough money in your Bill Pay Account, including any available overdraft, to make the payment or transfer.
- Some or all the money in your account is subject to legal process or other encumbrance restricting the transfer.
- There is a malfunction in the Bill Pay system or your communication with Online and Mobile Banking, and you know about the malfunction before you initiate the transaction.
- A Payee mishandles or delays in handling payments sent through Bill Pay.
- You have not provided Bill Pay with the correct Payee name, address, or account information or payment amount or due date.
- Circumstances beyond the Service's control (such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, or interference from an outside force) prevent the proper execution of the transaction and the Service has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.
- The purpose of the payment is to settle securities purchases, payments to interest bearing accounts, tax payments, or court ordered payments.
- If your account is closed or if it has been frozen.
- If you, or anyone you allow, commits any fraud or violates any law or regulation or if any transaction is prohibited by law, regulation, court order, or would be considered illegal activity.
- If our failure to complete the transaction is done to protect the security of your account and/or the system.
- If delays in processing and/or payment are caused by third-party software and/or services.
- There may be other exceptions stated in our Other Agreements with you.

Provided none of the foregoing exceptions to the Service performance obligations are applicable, if the Service causes an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your Bill Pay Account or causes funds from your Bill Pay Account to be directed to a person or entity which does not comply with your Payment Instructions, the Service shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Bill Pay Account or for directing to the proper recipient any previously misdirected payments or transfers.

Time Frame and Process for Notifying Members of Exceptions to Normal Processing of Service Requests

In the unlikely event we are unable to process your transaction, we will notify you by email within two (2) business days after we are notified of the exception by the Bill Pay Service provider. You understand that because the new merchant verification process can take five (5) to ten (10) business days, notification of an exception on a new merchant transaction may extend to two (2) business days beyond the verification period.

Available Balance

You are responsible for ensuring there is a sufficient available balance in the Bill Pay Account on the Approximate Debit Date to cover the full amount of any payment you instruct us to make through Bill Pay. We will not complete a bill payment transaction if there is not a sufficient available balance in the Bill Pay Account (including funds available through any overdraft line of credit or automatic transfer feature) on the Approximate Debit Date, with the exception that paper checks will be sent with Bill Pay regardless of the available balance on the Approximate Debit Date. However, if there is not a sufficient available balance in the Bill Pay Account at the time the paper check is deposited, we will not complete the bill payment transaction. If there is not a sufficient available balance in your Bill Pay Account on the Approximate Debit

Date or when a paper check is deposited as provided for herein, no subsequent bill payments will be processed until there is a sufficient available balance in the Bill Pay Account.

If the bill payment resulted in a non-sufficient funds status of your account, we will notify you in writing via email one day after the transaction was to be performed. You will be charged an NSF Fee in accordance with CCCU's established and published Schedule of Fees.

Bill Pay Methods and Restrictions

Payment will be made to your Payee either electronically via the Automated Clearing House (ACH) or by check. The method of payment depends upon the processing method that can be accommodated by your Payee (e.g., some Payees are unable to accept electronic payments).

You understand it is important that you take into consideration what method of bill payment, either electronic or check, that will be used to send a payment to your Payee. If your Payee accepts electronic bill payment, the payment may take up to two (2) to four (4) Business Days to process. If the Payee does not accept electronic bill payment, the payment will be sent in a check form and may take up to five (5) to ten (10) Business Days to process.

THE FOREGOING SHALL CONSTITUTE THE SERVICE'S ENTIRE LIABILITY AND YOUR EXCLUSIVE REMEDY. IN NO EVENT SHALL THE SERVICE BE LIABLE FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES, INCLUDING LOST PROFITS (EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY THEREOF) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE INSTALLATION, USE OR MAINTENANCE OF THE EQUIPMENT SOFTWARE, AND OR THE SERVICE.

EXCLUSIONS OF WARRANTIES

THE SERVICE AND RELATED DOCUMENTATION ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANT ABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

Password and Security

To access Bill Pay, you will need to log on to the Online banking or Mobile Banking web site. You agree not to give or make available your Online and Mobile Banking User ID and Password to any unauthorized individuals. You are responsible for all bill payments that you and your Bill Pay authorized user, authorize using the Service. If you permit other persons to use the Service or your Online and Mobile Banking User ID and Password (even though you have agreed not to disclose this information) or your Online and Mobile Banking Password, you are responsible for all transactions they authorize. If you believe that your Online and Mobile Banking Password has been lost, stolen, or compromised, or that someone may attempt to use the Service without your consent or has transferred money from your account by accessing your account without your permission, you must notify CCCU at once by calling 800-347-CCCU (800-347-2228).

You also agree that CCCU may revoke your Online and Mobile Banking or Bill Pay access if unauthorized account access and/or transactions occur as the apparent result of negligence in the safeguarding of the Online and Mobile Banking User ID and Password belonging to you and/or your authorized user.

Your Liability for Unauthorized Transfers

Please note that the term unauthorized electronic fund transfer, also referred to herein as an unauthorized transfer, has the same meaning as defined in Regulation E, 12 CFR § 1005.2(m). You are responsible for all transfers you authorize using the Services hereunder. Transactions that you or someone acting with you initiates with fraudulent intent are also authorized transactions. You understand and agree that you will be responsible for all transactions that you make and/or initiate, including fraudulent transactions where you initiate the transaction but are the victim of fraud or transactions you initiate in error. When you give someone your password or other means to access the Services, you are authorizing that person to use your Services, and you are responsible for all transactions that person performs while using your Services unless otherwise provided for by applicable law. All transactions that person performs, even those transactions you did not intend or want performed, are authorized transactions, unless otherwise provided for by applicable law.

Notify the Credit Union immediately if you believe your password or other credentials to access the Services have been lost or stolen or that an unauthorized transfer has been made from any of your accounts. Telephoning us is the best and fastest way of keeping your possible losses to a minimum. You could lose all the money in your accounts.

If you tell us within two (2) business days after you discover the loss or theft, you may be liable for no more than $50, if someone accesses your account without your permission.

If you do not tell us within two (2) business days after you discover the loss or theft of your password or other credentials to access the services, or that an unauthorized transfer has been made from any of your accounts, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from making a transfer without your authorization if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.

Furthermore, if any account statement shows transfers that you did not make, tell us immediately. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money lost after the sixty (60) days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from making the transfers if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

If you believe your password or other credentials to access the services has been lost or stolen or that someone has transferred or may transfer money from your accounts using the services without your permission, call:

However, if the notice of error involves a transfer to or from an account within thirty days after the first deposit to the account was made, we may have up to twenty (20) days to determine if an error occurred and we will provisionally credit such an account within twenty (20) days if more time is needed to complete our investigation.

- If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) Business Days, we may not provisionally credit your account.

- We will tell you the results within three (3) Business Days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

Disclosure of Account Information to Third Parties

We will disclose information to third parties about your account or transfers you make:

- When it is necessary to complete an electronic transaction; or
- To verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant; or
- To comply with a government agency or Court order, or any legal process; or
- If you give us written permission.
- As explained in our separate privacy disclosures, which can be found here.

In the Event a Bill Pay Transaction is Returned and/or Overdraws Your Bill Pay Account

In using Bill Pay, you are requesting the Service to make payments for you from your Bill Pay Account. If we are unable to complete the transaction for any reason associated with your designated checking Account (for example, there are not sufficient funds in your Account, including any available overdraft, to cover the transaction), the transaction may not be completed. In some instances, you will receive a return notice or an Overdraft Privilege Service notice from CCCU. In these cases, you agree that a non-sufficient funds (NSF) fee or an Overdraft Privilege Service (ODP) fee will be charged in accordance with CCCU's established and published Schedule of Fees.

By enrolling in and using Bill Pay, you agree that CCCU has the right to collect funds from all of your share accounts as well as the available balance on your Line of Credit accounts to recover funds for all payments that have been requested to be paid by you and your authorized user; this includes accounts on which you are the primary member-owner, as well as accounts on which you are the joint owner.

Alterations and Amendments

The terms of this Agreement, applicable fees and service charges may be altered or amended by the Credit Union or the Service from time to time. In such event, the Service shall send notice to you at your address of record or by secure electronic message via the Online and Mobile Banking system. Any use of Bill Pay by you after a notice of change has been sent, will constitute your agreement to such change(s). Further, the Service may, from time to time, revise or update the programs, services, and/or related material, which may render all such prior versions obsolete. Consequently, the Service reserves the right to terminate this Agreement as to all such prior versions of the Bill Pay, and/or related material and limit access to the Service's more recent revisions and updates.

Address Changes

You agree to promptly notify CCCU in writing of any address change.

In the event you wish to discontinue the Service, you must do so via Bill Pay. You understand that no further payments will be made once termination or discontinuation has occurred, and that any scheduled bill payments that have not yet been debited from your Bill Pay Account will be canceled.

Payee Limitations

Bill Pay reserves the right to refuse to pay any person or entity to whom you may direct a payment. The Service is obligated to notify you promptly if it decides to refuse to pay a person or entity designated by you. This notification is not required if you attempt to pay tax, government entity and agency, DMV, collection agency, or court- related payments, or payments to foreign merchants with remittance addresses outside the United States.

Information Authorization

You agree that the Bill Pay service reserves the right to obtain financial information regarding your account from a Payee (merchant) or financial institution to resolve payment-posting problems.

Disputes

In the event of a dispute regarding Bill Pay, you and the Service agree to resolve the dispute by looking to this Agreement. You agree that this Agreement (along with the Electronic Services Disclosure and Agreement) is the complete and exclusive statement of the Agreement between you and the Service which supersedes any proposal or prior Agreement, oral or written, and any other communications between you and the Service relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. If there is a conflict between what one of CCCU's employees says and the terms of this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall control.

No Waiver

The Service shall not be deemed to have waived any of its rights or remedies hereunder unless such waiver is in writing and signed by the Service. No delay or omission on the part of the Service in exercising any rights or remedies shall operate as a waiver of such rights or remedies or any other rights or remedies. A waiver on any one occasion shall not be construed as a bar or waiver of any rights or remedies on future occasions.

Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with federal law and related regulations, and to the extent that there is no applicable federal law or regulation, by the laws of California without regard to that state's conflict of law's provisions. We reserve the right at any time to terminate your right to make transactions as we deem it necessary without prior notice to you.

Security of Online Systems
